Lot 49

Connecticut. Bridgeport. Rare $5 Spurious Note

Connecticut Bank, altered from New York City 10th Ward Bank. January 4, 1845. VG, once mounted but still fairly choice in spite of itself. Mentioned by Haxby but not seen or confirmed. Rare.

Est. $150.00 - $200.00

Lot 50

Connecticut. Uncut Goodspeed's Landing Sheet

Bank of New England. Horizontal center crease, otherwise a flawless Remainder sheet. Two $1 notes, a $2 note, and a $5 note.

Est. $175.00 - $200.00

Lot 51

Florida. 1830s $10 Note

Commercial Bank of Florida. VG, light foxing, well-used but still maintaining great paper integrity despite some tiny edge chipping. Florida notes tend to be scarce across the board, at least to our experience.

A total of Three Million Marks! EF, bonds and coupons with light folds but no other disturbances. (Total: 3 pcs)

Est. $75.00 - $100.00

Lot 68

VF Details 1788 Massachusetts Cent Rarity

Ryder 13-I. Rarity-7. PCGS Certified Cleaned -- VF Details. An extreme rarity, one of fewer than a dozen specimens known, and probably in the running for finest known among those select few examples. Deep golden-brown, now retoning from an old cleaning. No marks of measure are seen. A cleaned VF example of Ryder 13-I sold in 2013 for the princely sum of $18,000, and a Fine-12 PCGS specimen brought $5,040 in 2019. The rarity -- and value -- of this die combination cannot be overstressed!

Est. $6,000.00 - $8,000.00

Lot 69

Choice VF 1806 Half Cent

Small 6, No Stems. VF-25, golden-brown surfaces.

Est. $350.00 - $375.00

Lot 392

Select Proof 1905 Gold Quarter Eagle

NGC Certified Proof-62. Boldly lustrous with soft cameo contrast. A few light obverse haymarks keep this from a finer designation; the reverse is easily a "63" or "64" coin. Though 144 Proofs of the issue were struck, it is doubtful all of the specimens were sold. A great opportunity for an alert collector.

Est. $3,000.00 - $3,500.00

Lot 393

Famed 1911-D Unc Quarter Eagle Rarity

Strong D. NGC Certified MS-61. A satiny deep golden specimen of the primary key date to the Indian quarter eagle series. Lively rose highlights engage both sides. Bold D mintmark, far more desirable than its "weak D" counterpart. This date's value climbs dramatically the farther up the grading scale one goes.

Est. $5,250.00 - $5,750.00

Lot 394

Very Choice Mint State 1927 Gold Quarter Eagle

NGC Certified MS-64. Satiny and lustrous mattelike surfaces offer olive-gold iridescence throughout.

Est. $650.00 - $700.00

Lot 395

Very Choice AU 1878 Gold Three-Dollars

NGC Certified AU-58. Lustrous with only a whisper of wear. A popular date that is often selected for inclusion in gold type sets.

Est. $1,750.00 - $1,850.00

Lot 396

AU Details 1836 Classic Head Gold $5

AU details, cleaned at some point but still a visually wholesome presentation. Sharply struck.

Est. $900.00 - $1,100.00

Lot 397

AU 1848 Gold Half Eagle

PCGS Certified AU-50. Pale olive-gold surfaces offer no marks to the naked eye. Die crack unites the bottoms of the date numerals.

Est. $650.00 - $750.00

Lot 398

Flashy Choice 1880-S $5 Gold Liberty

NGC Certified MS-63+. A wonderfully appealing example that in our opinion is just a tiny mark or two away from gem condition.

Est. $800.00 - $850.00

Lot 399

Choice 1901 $5 Gold Liberty

NGC Certified MS-63. Shows strong luster and brilliant lemon gold color. An excellent representation of the grade.
