Lot 407

NGC MS-62 1896-S Morgan Dollar

Fully brilliant, intensely lustrous, and crisply struck from sharp dies. While five million examples of the date were struck, the commerce of San Francisco chewed up and spit out the majority of this date, leaving Mint State pieces extremely elusive at any level. The present specimen is undeniably choice for the grade, with a reverse at least two points finer than the obverse.

Est. $3,000.00 - $3,250.00

Lot 409

Satiny and boldly lustrous with pale golden highlights.

Est. $90.00 - $110.00

Lot 411

Choice MS-63 1903-O Morgan Dollar

Sharp, bright, and boldly lustrous. Until the Treasury releases of the early 1960s, the 1903-O Morgan dollar was considered the key to the entire series; it had a value of $1,500 in just VF -- not bad for a circulated Morgan 60+ years ago!

Est. $675.00 - $725.00

Lot 398

EF-40 1893-O Morgan Dollar

Evenly circulated and not noticeably marked, and with plenty of retained natural luster in the protected areas.

Brilliant, satiny, and lustrous, with unbroken luster on the high points.

Est. $1,000.00 - $1,200.00

Lot 404

Est. $800.00 - $1,000.00

Lot 406

MS-60 1896 Redfield Hoard Morgan Dollar

In the standard Redfield holder. Brilliant centers give way to rainbow iridescence at the rims.

Est. $550.00 - $750.00

Lot 415

AU-50 Details 1904-S Morgan Dollar

Lightly cleaned, but still retaining much original mint bloom in the recessed areas. Mostly available in lower grades, say VF or less, with AU and finer pieces tending to be ultra-scarce to downright rare depending on grade.

Est. $750.00 - $1,000.00

Lot 417

PCI Morgan Dollar Quartet

Includes (2) 1900 & (2) 1902-O. All are in MS-65 holders though as typically seen with PCI coins, the grades are quite optimistic. Somewhere between MS-60 and MS-63 would be the grades we would assign them. Most show some colorful toning, though we would question the originality. (Total: 4 pcs)

Est. $200.00 - $250.00

Lot 419

4 Different PCI Morgan Dollars

Includes 1883-O, 1884-O, 1885-O & 1886. Assigned grades are MS-65 to MS-65+, which in our view are 2 to 3 points high. Some of the toned coins may or may not be original. (Total: 4 pcs)

Includes 1883-O, 1886 & 1887. Grades from MS-65 to MS-66+ have been assigned, but as with the other PCI coins offered is optimistic. The toning on 2 of the 3 is also suspect. (Total: 3 pcs)

Est. $150.00 - $175.00

Lot 420

A 2nd 4 Different PCI Morgan Dollars

Includes 1883-O, 1889, 1898 & 1898-O. PCI Assigned grades range from MS-63 to MS-65+. We would put them more in range of AU (on the MS-63 coin) to MS-62 on the others. Any toning is most likely artificial. (Total: 4 pcs)
