PCGS AG Details 1793 Wreath Cent

With a full date and other visible details this is probably best described as a G-VG, slightly rough with some rim damage.

Est. $1,250.00 - $1,500.00

Lot 168

NGC Fine Details 1798 Large Cent

Chocolate brown with the holder noting environmental damage. Any such issue is barely noteworthy if at all.

Est. $250.00 - $300.00

Lot 170

AG/G-3+ 1799 Large Cent

Light to choclate brown with mostly smooth surfaces. Somewhat weak at the bottom of the date, which is easily confirmed by die. Sure to be a prized possession of a copper collector.

Est. $2,750.00 - $3,250.00

Lot 172

G+-6 1804 Large Cent

Light to medium brown with wonderfully smooth surfaces. The reverse is a little weak at the left otherwise this one would make VG. Like the 1799 offered earlier, a prize for the copper specialist.

Est. $2,500.00 - $3,000.00

Lot 174

NGC EF Details 1810/09 Large Cent

S-281. A very sharp EF with a clearly recut date. Chocolate brown with the mentioned environmental damage mostly amounting to some light pits and slightly less than smooth surfaces.

Very original, in fact a little dirty.

Est. $800.00 - $225.00

Lot 427

NGC MS-62 1850 $20 Gold Liberty

Fully struck with brilliant, lustrous surfaces. The coin shows no distracting features, save for a tiny planchet flaw on Liberty's cheek. You may have to look for some time to find a finer example at this grade level. MS-62 is a real sweet spot for these coins as the price doubles in MS-63! This first collectible year of issue $20 has a price guide value of $42,500.

Est. $27,000.00 - $29,000.00

Lot 429
