Columbus portrait. Fresh and new with bright inking.

Est. $50.00 - $60.00

Lot 109

Massachusetts. VF-EF 1787 Cent

Ryder-2C. A scarce variety in all grades, with VF or finer pieces in the minority where this variety is concerned. Natural planchet flaw at top of obverse, weakness in date on reverse. An example with plenty of character and eye appeal.

Est. $400.00 - $450.00

Lot 111

Good or Better Details 1795 Half Cent

Dark brown surfaces yield uniform microporosity and some scattered, old scratches.

Est. $200.00 - $250.00

Lot 100

Pair of State-Issued Obsolete Notes

Boston. Cochituate Bank. $5 VG. Well-worn but not overly harmed by its stay in circulation; and Virginia Treasury Note $1 Good though split in half. (Total: 2 pieces)

Est. $40.00 - $60.00

Fairly crisp considering the low-quality paper used by the Confederacy. Bold inking throughout.

Est. $40.00 - $50.00

Lot 104

Very Rare Minneapolis MN Civil War Scrip

VF. A municipal 5 cent note of which just 4 or 5 are known. Signed by R.J. Mendenhall on the back, probably as the redeemer. The only other recent sale we could find brought over $1,000.

Est. $750.00 - $1,000.00

Lot 106

Unc 1893 Columbian Expo Admission Ticket

Columbus portrait. Fresh and new with some mild toning.

Est. $40.00 - $50.00

Lot 108

Massachusetts. Impressive EF 1787 Half Cent

Ryder-2A. The glossy deep golden-tan surfaces are devoid of marks other than some tiny planchet abnormalities, as struck. The eye appeal is substantial for the grade. An excellent coin in all regards, and a variety that is nothing short of elusive in EF or finer.

Est. $600.00 - $650.00

Lot 110

Choice VF to EF 1785 Nova Constellatio Copper

Script US, Pointed Rays. An exciting deep golden-brown and blemish-free Nova Constellatio, laden with eye appeal, and as fresh and pleasing as any you're apt to see at this grade level. Evenly centered and sharply struck.

NGC Unc Details BG-209A Cal Gold 25-Cents Rarity

(1853) Reverse Damage. BG-209A. Liberty Head. Round. Rarity-8. Listed in the Breen-Gillio reference as unique! Deep honey-gold with soft underlying luster. The "Reverse Damage" amounts to some tiny pin scratches near the fraction. An extreme rarity in the Small Denomination California gold pantheon. Though not unique as once thought, this is perhaps just the third known example of this prized rarity. An example called MS-63 PCGS brought $33,600 in April, 2018 in a Heritage auction (Ex Lecce, Tothero, Sunshine collections), attesting to the rarity of the variety. We suspect there will be great bidding excitement when this rarity steps up for bidding.
